

FRÉDÉRIC BROUÉ

Frédéric Broué's first experience as a town councillor was in 2017 in Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts. This year, he will take the plunge into the mayor's job in Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts, with what he describes as the best team available to meet the needs of its citizens.

As a city councillor, he participated in the preparation of an annual budget of $ 30 million, while being involved in human resources management at various levels. As recreation committee member, he helped set up several neighborhood parks and a $ 2 million multi-sport center, to name just a few of his accomplishments. With Councillor Marc Tassé and the then President of the Chamber, Rémy David, he was an active member in the City's new agreement with the Greater Sainte-Agathe Chamber of Commerce.

Father of 3 children, Frédéric is married to Marie-Lyne Larocque, the daughter of the well-known Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts doctor Robert Larocque. He has a vast experience during more than 25 years in the municipal arena. Since 2014, he has been Assistant Director General of the town of Saint-Colomban. He holds a diploma in administration of services and human resources from the University of Quebec in Montreal. "For 3 years, at the beginning of my career I worked as director of the Recreation Department in the municipality of Sainte-Anne-des-Lacs, then 2 years in Saint-Faustin-Lac-Carré" says Mr. Broué. During 8 years, he headed up the Recreation Department of the City of Saint-Colomban, and then in 2010, he left that job to take up a new challenge in the Municipality of Sainte-Sophie as Assistant Director General.

Frédéric has the ability to lead and energize teams, and has an excellent sense of organizing priorities and time management. In his community, he is recognized for his autonomy and leadership. Persuasive, energetic, daring and determined, he is particularly skilled in interpersonal relationships.

At the community level, Frédéric has been president of the governing board of the Groulx / Bazinet school for 8 years, and he has also served as president of the Sainte-Anne-des-Lacs Optimist Club and the Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts Soccer Association. He worked as a sports and recreation coordinator for the Regional Center for Physical Education and Sports (CREPS) in Saint-Jérôme for 6 years and in the Laurentians, was responsible for the Fondation X-Quive helping young dropouts. As coordinator, he set up 2 youth centers in Saint-Sauveur and Saint-Colomban, and was involved in the creation of an interpretation center at Ferme Bonnibook in Mille-Isles. And we cannot forget his involvement as a member and manager of the SNQ des Laurentides and the Canadian Tire Foundation of the Laurentides.

An outstanding manager, Frédéric is a visionary and creator of innovative projects at the municipal level. Frédéric Broué will be a candidate the position of mayor in the town of Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts, next November.
