

MARC TASSÉ

A town councillor since 2017, Marc Tassé will seek a second term next November. Marc has held several positions within the council, namely as head of the town's urban consultation committee (CCU) and the urban planning committee, as well as the sustainable development, economic development and human resources committees.

Marc is a manager and member of the Order of Chartered Administrators of Quebec (Adm.A). His concern has always focused on results and customer satisfaction, and he has worked in sales, service and team management for over 32 years. In this regard, he has been the owner of Promotions Innov since 2009, a company specializing in clothing and promotional products. He previously held the position of Director of Product Support, at Nortrax from 2007 to 2010 and prior to that, several positions with Johnston Equipment from 1989 to 2007.

Marc has a special talent creating long-term business relationships with his clients, citizens and companies. A skilled communicator, he also has an excellent sense of adaptation. He is creative and able to work alone or in a team. Known for his leadership, his ability to solve complex problems is remarkable.

At the community level, Marc has left his mark as commissioner, president of the executive committee and vice-president of the council of commissioners at the Affluents School Commission. From 2015 to 2017, he was a member of the supervisory board of the Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts Caisse Populaire, member of the board of directors of the Greater Sainte-Agathe Chamber of Commerce (2013 to 2017) and member of the Autonomous Work Support Committee (STA) of the Laurentian Economic Development Corporation (CDE). Also, since 2015, he has been a member of the mentoring unit of the SADC des Laurentides.

Sport has also occupied an important place in his volunteer life. Since 2018, he has volunteered with the Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts Minor Hockey Association. Previously, he was vice-president of the AHMLP, double letters section, president of the La Plaines Minor Hockey Association and member of the La Plaines Soccer Club (coach and director) to name just a few.

Marc is a great enthusiast and greatly appreciated wherever he goes. An asset of choice for the Broué Team, who are counting on his expertise and overwhelming enthusiasm.

